SOCIAL SKILLS ROCK (AGES 6-10)

Social Skills Rock is a high-energy, music-fueled camp designed to support social-emotional learning in a neuro-affirming, strengths-based environment. Using a variety of evidence-based social-emotional learning (SEL) frameworks, we empower campers to develop meaningful connections, practice self-expression, and build confidence - all through the universal language of music.

During this crucial stage of social development, campers will explore age-appropriate strategies for engaging with peers, fostering healthy relationships, and understanding their emotions in a way that feels natural, supportive, and fun! Our interactive approach encourages self-monitoring, emotional regulation, and communication skills in a setting where every camper feels seen, heard, and valued.
